His Affairs. —Rev. Alexander Kent, of this city, has accepted the call tendered him by the Second Universalist Congregation of Baltimore. —Dr. Shapleigh made a post-mortem examination yesterday on the body of John Schultz, who died suddenly at No. 528 Powell street, and discovered that death resulted from disease of the heart. —A meeting of the colored residents of the Fourteenth ward, to make arrangements to participate in the celebration of the adoption of the fifteenth amendment, was held last night in the hall at Thirteenth and Spring Garden streets. —Attorney-General Kent, in response to an inquiry made by Colonel French, of the 1st Excelsior Colored Regiment, has decided that "colored citizens can be enrolled, organized, armed, and equipped as part of the militia of the State."

City Government. —Meeting of Both Branches of City Councils. Both branches of the City Government met yesterday afternoon. The business transacted was as follows: —The Coroner held an inquest yesterday on the body of Robert H. Shanklin, a colored boy, who died yesterday at No. 619 Baker street, from debility. Also on the body of Edward Davis, colored, who died of hemorrhage of the lungs, at No. 621 Lombard street. —A hearing took place yesterday afternoon, before Alderman Carpenter, in reference to rights claimed by a resident of a main street to place coal ashes in barrels and boxes on the sidewalk of a house on a by street. It was decided to be in violation of the law to do this, and a fineable offense for persons living on main streets to place barrels or other vessels on the sidewalks of houses situated on by-streets. —Last evening, about 9 o'clock, an altercation took place between John Houston, residing at No. 606 Penn street, and Edward Costello, living in the same house, when, it is alleged, Costello seized Houston and bit his under lip entirely off. The injured man was conveyed to the Pennsylvania Hospital by Policemen Andrew Arthur and John A. Feeney, of the Seventeenth district, who subsequently started in quest of Costello and arrested him. —The nineteenth anniversary meeting of the Spring Garden Institute was held last evening in the lecture-room of the same, Broad and Spring Garden streets. General William B. Thomas presided. On opening the meeting the chairman made a brief address, and later in the evening an address by William Welsh, Esq., was read, giving an interesting history of the conception and progress of the idea of which this and similar institutions are the result. —Last evening, about half-past 7 o'clock, Kate Hill, a servant in the family of Mr. Baker, residing in the rear of the northeast corner Eleventh and Hunter streets, was stabbed by her husband, Samuel G. Hill. The parties had been separated for some time, and Mrs. Hill had been for some months supporting herself by going out to service. Last evening her husband called upon her, and being refused money which he demanded, drew a dirk knife and plunged it into the side of the woman, and then fled. In his flight he threw away the knife. He was arrested a few minutes afterwards in the neighborhood, and the knife was found in Hunter street. Dr. Cooper was called in to attend the wounded woman, and he pronounced her in a dangerous condition, and by his advice she was removed to the Pennsylvania Hospital about 9 o'clock. —At the hospital Mrs. Hill gave her version of the affair, that she had given her husband money in the afternoon to purchase what she understood was to be a butcher knife, but that instead of this he bought the dirk. In the evening, when he came to demand more money, he made a proposition to her that she should earn money in an infamous way, and upon her consenting, she was stabbed as above stated. Mrs. Hill is about 17 years of age, and has been married only two years. —Gold closed yesterday at 113. —A number of postal changes were made in Pennsylvania yesterday. —The Georgia bill was ably discussed yesterday by Senator Morton and others. —The Norfolk Board of Trade want a National Navy Yard established at that city. —The National Academy of Sciences was in session again yesterday in Washington. —Governor Smith is maturing a policy for the suppression of lawlessness in Alabama. —As one preparation against the Fenians, the New Dominion Parliament has suspended the habeas corpus. —The Potomac Iron Furnace Company of Virginia has sold its works and ore beds to Mr. H.
